

Ice Racing NSW Time Trials 2021

Sunday, July 25th at 7.00 am

IRNSW will be holding the second time trial scheduled on July 25th.

For skaters, the aim of the time trials is to give you an opportunity to achieve your personal best times, see where you are at with your training, and benchmark and track over the year as you work towards nationals and other events.

For volunteers and officials, it gives you the opportunity to practice and train for timekeeping, the Lynx timing system and other tasks which are needed to run successful events in NSW in the future.
